

Samuhik Astitva (Team Building)

It's an opportunity for the young nascent business school graduates students ready to cross the threshold. Many a time incredible individual performance turns out to be feeble group player. So check your own competence and your compatibility with the group.

General Instructions:

1. Registration for this event will be accepted only in teams.
2. A team can have at the max 5 members.
3. Lesser the team members more damaging it will be for the team.
4. Series of elimination rounds will be conducted (all will be of knock out type).
5. All elimination rounds games will be Group tasks only.
6. 5 Teams can lastly qualify for the FINAL EPISODE.
7. All essential resources pertaining to an activity will be provided by us only at the time of its occurrence.

Final Episode of the Game has 2 Rounds

Round 1: Individual Performance (1 activity per participant)

In round 1 individual team members can work to the finest of their competence to earn max possible points for their respective team which will help them in second round of the Game.

Round 2: Group Performance